My experiences not only as an editor but as a passionate filmmaker and storyteller will allow me to provide the team with entertaining and interesting videos. I use the DLSR system on a regular basis and have also expanded my knowledge by taking a variety of courses. I am proficient with Premiere Pro and the Adobe Suite. I have strong communications skills through having directed a number of plays and video shoots. My background in creative writing for plays, films, and videos will provide unique insights and perspectives in this role.
